

Southeastern University
School of Unrestricted Education
FOUNDATIONAL CORE
ENGL 1133 English Composition I
Official Syllabus

Catalog Description

This course is the study and practice in the critical reading and effective writing of expository prose with an emphasis on fluency and style.

Prerequisite: none

Credit Hours: 3

Intended Learning Outcomes

Students who successfully complete this course will:

1. Respond to various rhetorical situations using appropriate academic style.
2. Develop flexible processes for generating, revising, editing and proof-reading.
3. Write an essay with meaningful context and effective organization.
4. Practice critical reading of college-level, nonfiction writing.
5. Use correct syntax, grammar, punctuation, and spelling.
6. Articulate a statement of their philosophy of writing as a Christian.

Version History

v1.0 Original course approval.

v2.0 Changes to ILOs and description based on Dept. of Humanities 2016-17 revision and Foundational Core outcomes.