Course Description: ART 112 is a beginning painting class focused on developing fundamental skills through guided projects. The goal of the course is to facilitate the practice of painting, through the development of core concepts, techniques, material knowledge, and observational skills. Students will learn color theory and delve into technical uses of painting media with acrylics, oils, watercolor, and/or gouache.

Prerequisites / Corequisites: None

Course Student Learning Goals:

1. Apply color theory, including hue, value, saturation, and color relationships, with intentionality and analytical precision.
2. Investigate the expressive and technical properties of acrylic, oil, watercolor, and/or gouache through structured studio practice.
3. Articulate artistic decision-making and evaluate peer work through written and verbal critique.
4. Select painting media, tools, and surfaces appropriate to specific compositional and conceptual goals.
5. Produce a body of work that demonstrates measurable technical development across assigned projects.

Mission of ACU:

Arizona Christian University provides a biblically-integrated, liberal arts education equipping graduates to serve the Lord Jesus Christ in all aspects of life, as leaders of influence and excellence.

ACU endeavors to integrate the Fine Arts into its mission of “transforming culture with truth.”

Texts and Resources:

The resources below are important for the student's success in this class. Learning occurs both in and out of the classroom. Having access to the required resources will allow the successful student to keep up in class. If you have any questions or difficulties in finding a text, please let me know.

Required Resources: A supply list will be provided on the first day of class. Materials can be purchased at art stores and hardware stores, Instructor will make recommendations on where to purchase for best quality and pricing.

Expectations for students and faculty:

Campus policies for students can be found at Student Handbook; the ACU catalog can be found at ACU Catalog.

Attendance:

My goal is to foster your growth as an academic scholar. However, it is essential that you take stewardship of your education. Your feedback and participation are important to me and to your classmates. Make sure you attend class on time and are ready to participate in the tasks assigned for the session.

A student may miss up to two weeks' worth of classes during a semester (for classes that meet 2x per week up to four classes can be missed in the term; for classes that meet once a week, two classes can be missed in a term). If a student misses between two-three weeks of class, her final grade may be deducted by one letter. If the student misses more than three weeks' worth of classes during a semester (for classes that meet 2x per week, that is more than six classes), the student may fail the course.

There are no excused or unexcused absences; the two weeks' worth of absences is yours to use wisely. If you are struggling with attendance, then please contact me so that we can discuss options such as an incomplete or withdrawal.

If you are absent for a University Sanctioned Event then the absence is not counted towards the above totals. Note, you are responsible though for making up all the work you miss when gone. I encourage you to work with your classmates on getting notes and other important information you may have missed. Contact me for procedures to make up any in-class assignments.

Academic Integrity:

We want you to learn and grow to become men and women of integrity and excellence. To that end all assignments in this class are expected to be done in a way that is honest and reflects your effort and understanding. It can be confusing to know what is allowed or not allowed on an assignment. Here are some general guidelines, more specific instructions will be included with assignments.

Citation: Any assignment (for example a power point, speech, discussion post, paper, etc.) should be cited accurately in a way appropriate for the type of assignment.

Working with others: Sometimes you will be encouraged to work in groups to complete an assessment, other times you will be asked to work alone. In general, while you should work with your classmates to learn material, assessments should be completed by yourself unless otherwise stated.

Use of technology and artificial intelligence: There are several ways that technology and artificial intelligence can be used to enhance our learning and productivity. Sometimes I will encourage you to use technology in the completion of an assignment. Other times use of technology, such as having a chatbot generate part of a paper, will be forbidden as it will be important to see you work through the process without those aids. It is considered academically dishonest to use technology that is ruled out by the assignment.

New work: It is assumed that the work you do for the class is new and has not been submitted in another class. If you do want to use work that you created for another class in the current class, please speak with me first and get permission. I likely will ask that you significantly revise or expand on previous work. It is considered academically dishonest to submit a work for credit in multiple classes.

Consequences: If I determine that academic dishonesty has occurred, I will contact you directly about it. Potential consequences include having to redo the assignment to receive credit or receiving no credit on the assignment. If needed, I may refer the incident to the dean or vice president of academic affairs for further action.

Final Note:

We need to be flexible as items outside our control or anticipation can change the best way to move through the material. This syllabus is subject to modification and I will communicate with you any changes that occur. In addition, I will use my best judgement in evaluating exceptional cases with regards to assigning grades and implementing these policies.
